Child Care

Childcare & Family Services (ESD 112)	(360) 750-9735	2500 NE 65 Avenue	Vancouver	98661- http://www.esd112.org/ccfs
	Information: Child Care and Family Services (CCFS) will help you find the best child care to meet your child's needs. Their phone representatives provide one-on-one, free customized referrals to licensed caregivers that meet your specific criteria. Whether looking for a preschool in a child care center, a licensed family child care provider, or after-school care, they can help narrow the search to save valuable time.
Innovative Services Northwest	(360) 892-5162	9414 NE Fourth Plain Ro	Vancouver	98662- www.innovativeservicesnw.org
	Information: The Innovative Services NW Community Resources phone line is available to help families who need emergency childcare, connection to community resources, or someone to help. The program works with a variety of providers located throughout Clark County to find a provider that will be close to the family. Innovative Services NW also has daycare and preschool programs available on site.
SW Washington Child Care Consortium (ESD 112)	(360) 750-7501	2500 NE 65 Avenue	Vancouver	98661- http://www.esd112.org/swccc/
	Information: In 1989, Clark County's business, education and civic leaders joined Educational Service District 112 to take an extraordinary step: they launched the first of what has now become the largest community-run child care system in the United States. Today, this effort is recognized as one of the "best and brightest" examples of local, state, and federal government programs addressing one of today's toughest issues: child care.
